About Our School

Since 1941, West Fallowfield Christian School (WFCS) has provided Christian education on the western edge of Chester County. We are a Christ-centered community devoted to Christian faith and academic excellence for preschool through 8th grade. As one part of the Church-Family-School Triangle, our goal is to bring faith, family, and academics together to provide a quality comprehensive education that is consistently infused with the Gospel and dedicated to equipping the entire student for success.

Director of Development

West Fallowfield Christian School is looking for a Director of Development. Director of Development oversees all an organization's fundraising and manages relationships with a School's financial partners. Their duties include planning fundraising events, interacting with former donors to encourage ongoing contributions and seeking out opportunities for financial support through grants and sponsorships. Having the ability to multitask and come alongside administration to accomplish WFCS goals. Helping with admissions and student enrollment as well as open house events is required.

- A personal relationship with Jesus Christ and a member of a church who is in good standing
- Be team oriented
- Communicate effectively with others
- Be a positive role model for students; support mission of the school

Interested applicants should send their resume to Mrs. Heather Furlong, Principal at hfurlong@wfcs.org.
